

NO SUFFERING IN JANESVILLE

People Prove Able to Withstand the Cold Weather and High Price of Coal.

THE CITY'S THRIFT

Comparatively Few Requests for Public Charity Are Received from the City's Poor.

In view of the conditions existing in other cities and of the terrible suffering which is being endured owing to the severe cold weather and the coal famine, this city has great reason for congratulation. Possibly there is no city where genuine bitterness of the situation is less keenly felt and Janesville people are certainly fortunate in more ways than one.

Of course prices are high and it is almost impossible to secure anthracite coal, the supply in many of the yards being exhausted. But fuel of some kind is to be had and there is practically no suffering, even among the poor, because of the lack of fuel. Monday's advance in prices and the severe weather of the past few days have caused many wry faces, however.

People Are at Work

In face of the existing conditions, the high prices of fuel, food and of all the necessities of life, it speaks well for the thrift of the city that there is not an enormous increase in the demands for charity this winter. So far as the authorized agents for dispensing charity have been able to determine there has been but one case of actual suffering for lack of either food or fuel. This one exception was only a temporary need and it was quickly relieved.

Of course this does not mean that there is no charity work being carried on but it is true that people are able to get along comfortably with the aid which they receive from the county. The Associated Charities or generous individuals. There are several cases in the city where a certain amount of help has to be given each year. Some of these are elderly people who have a small income and are able to partly take care of themselves.

Supt. Kenyon's Testimony

S. B. Kenyon, county superintendent of the poor, says that the majority of the calls he receives are for fuel. On Monday he sent out three loads of wood and on today two more were sent out to needy families. The county has bought but very little hard coal this winter although there are three places where it has been necessary to furnish hard coal as the stoves will not burn anything else.

Mr. Kenyon says that the calls for fuel are much greater than last year. The requests for other provisions are not larger than usual and most of them come from the chronic charity cases. There is also comparatively little call for clothing. These facts prove that the people generally are at work and are caring for themselves as far as possible.

Associated Charities

W. G. Palmer, president of the Associated charities, says that while possibly he has received as many requests for help as he did last year, they are very few compared with the demands of some recent winters. Most of the calls are from the chronic cases and their needs are not as great as formerly because in several instances the children are now large enough to go to work. There have been some requests for temporary help until the tobacco warehouses opened up.

A Fortunate City

Pitiful stories of great privation are not heard, however, and when conditions in other cities are considered Janesville certainly has reason for thankfulness. Even the poorest of her people are comparatively fortunate and most fortunate of all is the wise man who bought his winter's supply of coal last summer when prices were just beginning their ascent and coal could be secured. He it is who can afford to smile now as he rejoices in a hard coal fire and thinks of his profitable investment.

Other Merchants Suffer

To people who relied on a decrease in price and who only purchased in small quantities, the advance and the impossibility of securing some kind of coal at any price do not look good at all. Merchants, other than coal dealers, also feel the effect in their business. People cannot buy coal or wool except by paying cash for it and consequently the merchants who allow their customers to run bills have to suffer. "I meant to pay my bill tonight but I had to buy a ton of coal today and you'll have to wait a while," is a common story heard by business men this winter. And yet, after all, things might be worse.

Testimony Continues in the Major Glenn Court Martial Trial.

Manila, Jan. 13.—At today's session of the court martial which is trying Major Edwin F. Want Taft To Remain

Manila, Jan. 13.—A delegation of former insurgents visited Governor Taft today and urged him to remain here and not to accept the nomination of associate justice of the United States Supreme Court. The delegates said that the whole Philippine people petitioned President Roosevelt to allow Governor Taft to remain here. The delegation sent a cablegram, to Washington urging Mr. Taft's retention as governor of the Philippines. Expressions favoring Judge Taft as governor are coming from all parts of the archipelago, and it is probable there will be another and larger demonstration in favor of his retention if it is finally decided to recall him to the United States. The people here fear a change of policy if Governor Taft is recalled.

STRATTON ESTATE IS SUED FOR MILLIONS

British Purchasers of the Independence Mine Allege Sacks of Samples Were "Salted."

Denver, Colo., Jan. 13.—The executors of the W. S. Stratton estate and L. Harry Stratton, the heir-at-law, were sued for $6,000,000 by the Stratton Independence company on the allegation that the famous Independence mine at Cripple Creek had been "salted" before its sale to the British syndicate.

The complaint filed in the federal court alleges that, at the time the mine was sampled, preparatory to concluding the sale, which had been negotiated through the Venture corporation of London, the samples were "salted," so that the amount of ore, according to those samples, was valued at $7,000,000, when in reality the ore in sight was worth only $2,000,000 or less. It is alleged that the sacks of samples were opened and quietly but thoroughly sprinkled with rich, ground up silvanite.

Further Debate

The House this morning introduced a substitute bill which practically places coal upon the free list for one year regardless of the passage of the bill taking off the duty July 1. The bill will be brought up and passed at once being the first on call for this evening's work.

GERMANS DEBATE ABOUT KIPLING

Berlin Papers Divided as to Whether He is a Jew, an Englishman or an American.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—A lively press discussion has been going on as to whether Rudyard Kipling is an Englishman or an American. The discussion arose from the Vossische Zeitung hinting that his last poem, "The Rovers," led to the downfall of Dr. von Holleben, the German ambassador to the United States, as Dr. von Holleben originally brought the poem to Emperor William's notice. The Krenz Zeitung, a clerical conservative organ, has now settled the question for itself that Kipling is a Jew.

ALDERMEN INDULGE IN ROW OVER LICENSE

Police Are Called to Quell Riot in Council Chamber at the Illinois Capital.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13.—Four policemen were called to the city council chamber to quell one of the most bitter arguments that ever was participated in by the aldermen of Springfield. The row was over the ordinance regulating saloons in residence districts. In the absence of Mayor Phillips, who is ill at home, Alderman McGuire of the Fifth ward presided. Alderman White of the Sixth ward took exception to the ruling of the acting mayor and refused to take his seat. He shouted at the top of his voice and other members got on top of their chairs and joined him. During the uproar a member telephoned the police station. Chief Herring with three officers rushed to the city hall, but before their arrival the disturbance was quelled.

At Kewaskum the roads are so blocked that teams cannot get through.

DE LONYAY HAS DESERTED WIFE

Former Crown Princess Stephanie Loses Her Husband Through Troubles.

Vienna, Jan. 13.—The Count and Countess de Lonyay, who was formerly the Crown Princess Stephanie, have parted. After repeated quarrels the count left his wife at Mentone, Jan. 7, and his present whereabouts are not known.

In addition to financial difficulties, it is said that the count as husband of a crown princess has found his position exceedingly unpleasant. It is believed that he will institute divorce proceedings. Pecuniary troubles are believed to be at the bottom of the whole affair.

As a widow the former crown princess enjoyed an income of $125,000 and a free residence at the Imperial palace. It is reported that the couple married in the belief that Emperor Francis Joseph and King Leopold would contribute handsomely to their maintenance. In this, however, they were disappointed.

The emperor gave the countess $25,000 a year only, while King Leopold stopped her former allowance of $10,000 a year. The countess consequently tried to meet the expenses of maintaining her household with one-fifth of her former income and found the task impossible.

Then she was granted the use of the palace of Hetezendorf, near Vienna, but this privilege expired upon the marriage of her daughter, the Prince von Windischgratz, Jan. 3, 1902.

The Crown Princess Stephanie of Austria-Hungary, widow of the Archduke Rudolph, and a daughter of King Leopold of Belgium, was married on March 22, 1900 to Count de Lonyay a popular diplomat of high standing in court circles. The marriage of the Princess to the Count de Lonyay was bitterly opposed by King Leopold.

MADISON RIFE WITH POLITICS

Organization of the Senate and Assembly Is Causing Trouble for the Legislators.

GOLDIN'S CHANCES

From All Accounts the Janesville Man Will Be Chosen Chief Clerk of the Senate.

(By Staff Correspondent.)

Madison, Jan. 13.—Gradually all the assemblymen and state senators have gathered and last night and this morning many conferences have been held behind closed doors at which none but the elect were allowed to be present. Senator Altheard arrived on them coming train and it quartered at the residence of Mr. A. L. Sexton on Wisconsin avenue. Assemblyman Charles Valentine is quartered at the Park hotel.

All A Mystery

Thus far nothing definite can be said as to the organization of either the Senate or the Assembly. Assemblyman Lenroot from Superior stands far in the lead this morning on speakers on affairs may take a turn before night when the caucuses will be held. This is his second term in the legislature and he appears to have the backing of the administration. He claims to have forty-three members pledged for his vote but he may lose some before the caucuses if any fight of a decided nature is made against him.

In The Senate

In the senate all the fight is being made by the administration to keep the conservative senators from organizing. The fight is centered upon the defeat of Theodore Goldin for Chief Clerk. In order to divide the forces of the conservative element the name of Hy. P. Schmidt, former chief clerk of the Secretary of State's office is being prominently mentioned and it is hoped that this division will allow the administration men to cast a solid vote for Grant Thomas, a Madison broker, for the position.

Has Good Chances

From all appearances Mr. Goldin has the best chances thus far despite the rumors that the split has come and that the conservative vote will be divided. Senator Whitehead would say nothing for publication beyond the fact that he thought Mr. Goldin's chances were most excellent and he had heard nothing of any break from him by the senators.

The President

Senator Stout has been the named choice for the President of the senate but this morning a rumor was started to the effect that he had withdrawn in favor of Senator Gillivray. This could not be substantiated. The sergeant at arms will either be MacDonald of Ashland or Schmidt of Milwaukee.

POSTAL CROOK IS CAUGHT IN OHIO

Gives His Name as Isaac O. Williams—Worked Janesville Merchants Last July.

A man giving his name as Isaac O. Williams has been captured at Lima, O., by the postoffice authorities for raising money orders. Williams is thought to be the same party who was in Janesville last July and worked Koerner Bros. for $19.25 and T. J. Ziegler for $20. on raised orders. One of the orders had been raised from $1.25 to $19.25 and the other from $2 to $20.

The orders were purchased at Milton Junction, one being made payable at Juda and the other at Juneau. Both of these orders were changed and made payable at Janesville. He was an original crook and worked all sorts of novel schemes to get the orders cashed without creating suspicion. He finally ran up against it down in Ohio and was landed by the postal authorities and will no doubt get a long sentence.

Mr. Row is kindly remembered by many friends in this city and his death will be sincerely regretted. He was a courteous Southern gentleman of unique individuality and during his residence here he won a high place in the esteem of Janesville people. For some time past he has been the proprietor of a prosperous telegraph school in Senoria, Ga. He leaves a wife and one child.

TRY TO INTEREST ALL LAND OWNERS

GOVERNMENT WISHES TO INSTRUCT MEN IN FORESTRY.

FOR THOSE ON ROCK RIVER

Report to Tell Remedy for Decrease in the Volume of Water in River.

In a report to be issued in the near future, instructions will be given in practical forestry, with a design to aid land owners in the care of their wooded areas. This bulletin will be compiled by the Bureau of Forestry, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington. It is to be published with a special view to preserving the stream flow of Rock river at its normal volume.

Bulletin Just Out
This intelligence is conveyed in a bulletin which has just been sent out from Washington. The bulletin itself is devoted to a general resume of the results of the investigation begun at the instigation of the Hon. R. R. Hill, representative in congress from the Ninth district of Illinois, to study the causes and the relationship of natural conditions to the steady decrease in the flow of the river.

The report which is soon to be compiled will be distributed for the especial use of landowners along the Rock river. The following quotation from the recent bulletin will show how ever, that there need be little fear that with a proper degree of care to guard against future diminution any disastrous results will follow the decrease in the river volume:

Little Danger
"It may be said, however, that the topographic features and geologic conditions of the Rock River watershed are especially conducive to a sustained water supply, so that the agencies referred to as diminishing the flow did not produce as serious results during the season of drought as might otherwise have occurred."

"The investigation shows, however, that on account of favorable topographic and geologic conditions of the region, there is but little cause for serious apprehension for the industrial and agricultural interests of the region, at least in seasons with a normal rainfall. Nevertheless, attention is called to the great value of a more conservative management of the forested areas in the Rock River watershed."

KEHL'S DANCING ACADEMY

Dancing School Opens After Month's Vacation, At The Central Hall
Prof. Kehl opened the second term of his dancing school on Monday evening at Central hall with the regular classes followed by a social hop. At the latter session the Baldwin & Rehfeld orchestra officiated. It is probable that only a half term will be given this time, including but six sessions, at least that is all that is being promised the patrons. The attendance was quite large in spite of the sudden dash of wintry weather.

STATUTE CLUB HAS FUN AT ELECTION

Young Attorney Turned Down After Receiving the Almost Unanimous Informal Vote

The Statute club, composed of the young lawyers of this city, seems to have a tendency to incorporate some of the Jackson club proceedings in their meetings, and in one case at least, had considerable fun out of it.

At the election of officers a short time ago a young lawyer, who has lately come to Janesville and is employed in the office of a prominent firm of attorneys, was proposed for the office of president. Not to be outdone in politeness he nominated another young attorney for the office and made a very flowing nominating speech. The presiding officer in honor of the fact that there were two candidates for office, told the members to prepare their ballots, and announced that the first ballot would be an informal one. The ballot was taken and the attorney who was first nominated received all the votes but one. It looked as if he had a walk away for the office, and he was all ready to deliver a speech of acceptance as soon as the formal ballot should be taken.

A formal ballot was then taken and very much to the surprise of the first nominee for the office, the first vote was reversed, and his opponent received all the votes but one, and was declared elected.

The defeated candidate even then did not suspect that he had been Jacksoned, but ascribed his defeat to the powerful nominating speech he had made for his opponent.

It is said that the members of the Jackson club are thinking seriously of inviting the attorney to become a member of their important body where first class nominating speeches are always in demand.

AMUSING SIDE OF A PASSING CUSTOM

Business and Pleasure Become Mixed in a Card of Thanks by Bereaved Widow.

The absurdities of the now happily almost obsolete custom of publishing "cards of thanks" after a death in the family, says the Appleton Crescent, are well illustrated by the following card from a Georgia widow which a friend discovered in a country paper down south and forwarded to Sam E. Kiser of the Chicago Record-Herald, who published it as a warning to others who may be tempted to indulge in a habit which denotes deplorable lack of taste:

"Mr. Editor: I desire to thank most heartily in this manner the friends and neighbors for their cooperation during the illness and death of my late husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death last Friday while eating his breakfast. To my friends and all who contributed so willingly toward making the last moments and funeral of my husband a success, I desire to remember most kindly. Hoping these lines will find them enjoying the same blessings, I have also a good milch cow and roan gelding horse 8 years old which I will sell cheap.

NO OUTSIDE GAMES FOR THE TEAM YET

High School Basket Ball Men Are Growing Anxious for First Scheduled Games.

Owing to the fact that no outside scheduled games are in sight, the members of the high school basket ball team appear to be losing enthusiasm. They started out with the best of prospects, and their prospects now are even better save for the lack of incentive in the way of match games. On Friday a practice game will be played with the Y. M. C. A. Several shake-ups have been tried this week and as a result the men have been working rather more raggedly than usual. But nearly all of them confess to a certain degree of listlessness because of the lack of a schedule. The candidates for the first team positions are Palmer, Kent, Carle, Sennett, Wilbur and Smith.

TEAM WINS UNEVEN GAME VERY EASILY

Association Basket Ball Five Competes Against Twelve Men, and Wins Out.

Instead of following the original intention of playing the Rockford Y. M. C. A. basket ball team on Thursday, the locals will meet them at the association "gym" on Saturday evening. A return game will probably be played at Rockford on the following Saturday. The line-up has not yet been fully determined. Len Mathews and Verne Murdoch will play the forward positions; Walter Gregory will take center; Roy Palmer will play one of the guards but the other place is still in the balance between J. Gregory and Ed. Palmer.

Monday evening the team put up a stiff practice game against nearly a dozen other players, and against such odds won out easily. At the end of the practice the five men had a majority in their favor of seven field goals, or fourteen points. On Wednesday evening the team will meet to elect a captain.

No Rest
"There is rest for the weary."
For long years this song has been sung and thought to be true. In some respects it is being discovered there is no rest for some of the weary. In the nerve distracting business activity of the present generation it has been thought, in fact, a man could go on a sea voyage for a time and be cut off from all connection with the world. For the week or ten days, during which this ocean voyage lasted, our weary man was entirely divorced from those distracting interests which had exhausted his nervous system. Now this is a thing of the past. The tired man has, so to speak "not where to lay his head. Ocean going ships are to be fitted up with complete newspaper plants, the news to be conveyed by wireless telegraphy, a newspaper issued, and the news given to the traveler on ship board as regularly as to the people on land. Surely there is to be no "rest for some of the weary."

MUTUAL FIRE IN ANNUAL MEETING

CITIZENS' COMPANY HOLDS ITS YEARLY BUSINESS SESSION.

FAVORABLE REPORT RENDERED

Dividends Have Been Paid in the Last Year, and Surplus Fund Increased.

In the offices of the company in the Jackson block, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens Mutual Fire Insurance company was held on Monday evening. Reports were submitted indicating the progress which has been made in the past twelve months, and general business was transacted. Officers were chosen for the coming year.

Has Paid Dividend
During the year which has just come to an end, according to the statements made at the meeting the company has added to the surplus account, above all expenditures on policies and otherwise, $2,500. A cash dividend of 25 per cent has been paid to the policy holders.

Conservative Management
In the six years of the existence of the company it has built up a surplus of ten thousand dollars after paying all losses and dividends. This indicates very clearly that in the management of the company the directors have been prudent and careful to guard against all unnecessary expense. The rates of the stock company are used as a basis, and on this dividends are paid to the stockholders.

Officers Were Chosen
The following directors were elected: President, C. D. Stevens; Vice Pres., W. G. Palmer; Treas., A. E. Blingham; Auditor, A. E. Matheson; Secretary, H. J. Cunningham.

PREPARE FOR TOURNAMENT

Plans Being Made For State Big Bowling Event In February

F. W. Kehl of Madison has been visiting proprietors of bowling alleys in prominent cities of the state, endeavoring to arouse interest in the tourney which will be held in Milwaukee for six days, beginning the 16 of February. Much has also been accomplished by the use of the posters of the league which are displayed in many alleys. There is little doubt that Janesville will be represented by a two-man team, and Deloit will have a similar representation. It is probable that Frost and Doorbaker of the latter city will enter.

BONAHOOM SAYS HE COULD DOWN BEELL

Talks of Former Ability as Wrestler, and Thinks He Could Use It Again.

This city has not yet raised up a wrestler to compete with Youseff, Schott, Beell or Murphy. Janesville has simply served as a favorable location to bring together some fast men on the mat. There is however, one man in the city, who feels that he has the ability to down any of them. He does not care to enter the public arena to do it, although he would have no objection to a bout before a few witnesses for any desired sum.

Najah Bonahoom, the East Milwaukee street fruit dealer, is the man who makes these statements. Fred Beell of Marshfield is a wrestler after his own heart, and one whom he would not only like to meet but is confident that he can master. Bonahoom comes of a race of wrestlers. He has not himself practiced the art since he came to this country twelve years ago. In Syria, his native land, he says that he has often wrestled against some strong and skillful men and that he knows that he can still down a formidable opponent after as short time spent in training.

It is with greatest pleasure that he tells of the achievements of his father and grandfather. His own skill he does not say much about. He knows he has it, and hardly regards the fact worth emblazoning a boast.

His grandfather, so he relates, was a powerful man of gigantic build weighing upwards of three hundred pounds. In one of his wrestling matches he grasped his opponent by the ear so firmly that when the struggle ended he was still holding the ear in his hand, while the opponent was nursing a maimed head.

ILLINOIS BARBERS TALK FOR LICENSE

Follow Wisconsin's Example in Advocating the Bill for Protection Against Poor Workmen.

Members of the Chicago Barbers' Protective union have this week begun the discussion of the feasibility of a bill similar to that which a committee from the Wisconsin barbers, one member of which committee lives in this city, is attempting to bring favorably before the legislature. The purpose of the bill is to license and examine barbers as to their competency in order to safeguard the public health.

In Illinois the effect is being aimed in a large part against the barber schools and colleges which turn out such a number of incompetent barbers, according to the statements made at the Chicago meeting. Chicago was censured as having a most degrading lot of barber shops. Such a law, it was believed, would tend to elevate the profession, which is blamed for "barbers' itch" and similar diseases which are in many cases simply eczema, and not traceable to barber shop uncleanness.

The bill that the union hopes to have enacted is similar to those on the statute books of ten states, and provides that barbers must pass an examination as to their competency before securing a license to follow the calling, shops are to be licensed and examined by inspectors as to their sanitary conditions, and requiring a person to learn the trade to serve two or three years apprenticeship before becoming a journeyman. The bill provides for an examining board of five, who have resided in the state five years and have had ten years experience as barbers, and ten inspectors to carry out the provisions of the law.

THE COAL FAMINE

Armour & Co. became so hard pressed for fuel to operate their Chicago stockyards plant Saturday that they seized three carloads of coal billed to the Fullerton avenue pumping station, according to reports received by the commissioner of public works.

Mayor Low of New York has sent a letter to the presidents of the anthracite coal roads asking them to meet him on Tuesday morning to consider some methods by which the coal supply in the city might be increased. The shortage and high price of coal has led to a general advance in rents of apartments and of rooms in all New York hotels where guests are not protected by contracts.

Philadelphia, the greatest coal center in the world, is without coal, and the suffering among the poor is very great. People who are able to burn gas are in that way keeping from freezing. The demand for oil heaters is immense. Absolutely nothing has been done by the municipality to relieve the distress, and charitable organizations are only able to carry out their usual programme.

Although hard coal sells in Boston at from $12 to $20 a ton and soft at $10 to $12, there is comparatively little suffering among the poor. In fact, the poorer sections of the city are better supplied with fuel than the fine residential quarters. This is due to the energy of the mayor's fuel relief committee. Well-to-do and wealthy people, however, are actually cold for want of it.

The municipal coal commission appointed by Mayor Maybury of Detroit to manage the coal business that the city is embarking in has arranged to begin the immediate purchasing of coal. J. L. Hudson, a prominent local merchant, who is chairman of the commission, announced that he will loan the commission $10,000 with which to purchase coal pending the passage of an enabling act by the legislature to legalize the use of $50,000 of the city's funds for this purpose.

The situation in St. Paul and Minneapolis is steadily growing worse, and many well-to-do people are obliged to live in their kitchens. It is feared the flour mills may shut down if coal does not soon arrive. Most of the milling companies have contracted for fuel, but they are unable to get it because of the congestion of freight traffic.

There is plenty of coal of all grades in Kansas City. The recent strike has cost the Pennsylvania mines whatever market they had in that vicinity, for the Arkansas product which can be delivered there much cheaper has been found wholly satisfactory. It is being delivered in Kansas City for $8.50 against $11.50 for Pennsylvania. Soft coal for domestic use is selling at $4 to $4.75, depending on quality, which is about 50 cents more than the normal price.

The immense plant of the Glucose Sugar Refining company of Peoria, Ill., has closed as a result of the coal situation, the managers having found it impossible to obtain a supply sufficient to keep up steam in the boilers. Eight hundred men are thrown out of employment. The Pekin plant of the company has been closed for the last three weeks from the same cause.

If you love your wife, make it easy for her to get breakfast. Take home Mrs. Austin's Pancake Flour.

STRONGEST EVIDENCE OF FAITH

The People's Drug Co. Guarantee That Hyomel Will Cure the Worst

Case of Catarrh in Janesville.

When one of the most reputable concerns in Janesville guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or they will return the money, it speaks volumes as to the merit of that remedy. It is in this way that the People's Drug Co. are selling Hyomel, the treatment that has made so many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in Janesville and vicinity.

Hyomel is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the air passages and lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomel will do its work of healing. When using this treatment, the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountains high above the sea level, where grow balsamic trees and plants which make the air pure by giving off volative antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

Remember that if Hyomel does not cure you, the People's Drug Co. will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season. People's Drug Co.

LAW DECISIONS

Physicians—Services Rendered on Sunday

Saturday, January 10, 1903.
Where a doctor, on account of professional engagements was compelled to choose Sunday to drive fourteen miles to a patient's home, to determine in consultation whether the patient's leg should be amputated, and it was decided unnecessary, the executor of the man's estate, after his death, cannot refuse payment on the ground that the services were not necessary, and hence an old law passed in 1794, forbidding worldly employment on Sunday, does not apply.

Taking into consideration the standing and practice of the physician in this case, one hundred dollars is considered a reasonable fee for such services. (In re estate of Kourling, Orphans Court, Allegheny County, Pa.)

Confessions—Warning to Defendant

It is sufficient in giving one accused of crime the warning required by statute, as a predicate for use of his confession by the state, to say to him that any statement he may make may be used against him, and that he should be careful what he says. But it is not necessary to go so far as to inform him that he has a perfect legal right to refuse to answer any question that may be asked him. 70 Southwestern Rep. (Texas, Judge Brooks) 754.

Life Insurance—Breach of Warranty

Where a life insurance made the application a part thereof, and the answers contained therein warranties, false answers that the insured had never consulted a physician, and that she never had liver disease, constituted a breach of the warranty, making the policy invalid. 70 Southwestern Rep. (Texas, Judge Fly) 787.

Murder—Dying Declarations

The statement of a person a few moments after he had received the fatal shot, that the defendant fired such shot, was a part of facts surrounding the murder, and was properly received in evidence against the defendant. A dying declaration, although not all written in the presence of the person making it, may be competent, where it is shown that the entire declaration was read to him, that he fully understood the contents of it, and signed it as and for his dying declaration. 70 Pacific Rep. (Idaho, Judge Sullivan) 849.

Peculiar Contracts—Public Policy

An associate press dispatch some time ago stated that Arthur Jennings, of Florence, Colorado, had sold his head to a medical college for $3,000 and had received $1,000 in advance, the balance to be paid to his relatives at his death. It seems when 13 years of age he suffered from an attack of brain fever, and after his recovery his head began to grow abnormally, and now, at the age of 25, it measures 32 inches in circumference. The college wishes his head for scientific purposes. The Chicago Legal News, taking the matter up, says: "Is it not against public policy to allow a man to sell his head or body after his death? If this practice should become common, it would undoubtedly lead to many cases of murder. It should not be tolerated."

THE GAME LAWS

The Gazette published recently a letter from Mr. Rollins, Chicago, written in the interest of Marathon county in particular, and the obnoxious game laws of the state in general.

Mr. Rollins owns 15,000 acres of land in Marathon county, and he registers a complaint of the manner which the men are treated by assessors, who buy a small tract of land and attempt to improve it for a home. He is in position to know what he is talking about and there is no reason why the injustice referred to should not be remedied. It will doubtless be brought to the attention of the legislature, about to convene.

Regarding the game laws, and work of the wardens, both are a burlesque on the intelligence of the state, as Mr. Rollins suggests.

Any one who is familiar with conditions that existed before the new laws were passed, knows, that Wisconsin was the great game and fishing resort of the north, and that sportsmen by the thousands were regular visitors.

They represented a class of men who had plenty of money and they spent it freely, caring little for game. They took their annual vacations in Wisconsin because of its numerous lakes, and opportunities to fish and hunt if they so desired.

Under the present regime, this class of sportsmen are conspicuous by their absence. They will not pay $25 or $10 for the privilege of visiting a state where their baggage is liable to confiscation, and where they are treated like criminals generally.

The present game laws, as administered, are simply a blind for the protection of pot hunters. This is especially true of water fowl. These are not the property of the state. They fly in and out with pleasure, but if they are killed in passage, by any class of sportsmen but pot hunters, a two by twice game warden who couldn't earn a $1.50 a day shoveling gravel, is encouraged by law and a good salary, to hunt up the victim and prosecute.

The state has paid $70,000 for this class of nonsense during the past year. That's twice as much as all the game in it is worth.

The argument is used that the state pays nothing because the bill is paid by men who happen to own a gun. That argument is altogether too thin to hold water. There would be just as much sense in claiming that the oil inspectors cost the state nothing, because the oil companies pay the bill.

Mr. Rollins is right on his proposition, and the law is a travesty that should be repealed or amended beyond recognition.

THE MANUFACTURERS

The action of Wisconsin manufacturers taken at their convention recently held in Milwaukee, is not only significant but it should lead to careful thought and investigation before any radical change is made in railway taxation.

Wisconsin is not an agricultural state. The land in the southern part of the state, adapted to farming purposes, produces no more, and is worth but little more today, than it was 25 years ago. Yet there is no state in the union that has a greater diversity of industries than the Badger state.

The increase in population, as well as the increase in wealth, is due to her manufacturing industries, and any legislation that cripples them by undue taxation, should be held accountable for the act.

The 100 men, assembled in Milwaukee, represented this class of interests in all parts of the state, and the sentiment expressed by Mr. Bull, of Racine, will be generally endorsed by these interests.

It is idle to claim, as the governor's Milwaukee organ attempts to do, that these men are the advance guard of a railroad lobby. The railroads are able to take care of themselves. If they are required to pay $1,000,000 more taxes, the people of the state will contribute the money, and the burden will fall largely upon the manufacturing interests.

This means hardship to an industry that is doing more to advance and build up the state, than all other interests combined, and the fact is fully appreciated by the men most directly interested.

The reform movement is glibly discussed by men and writers, who never paid a freight bill, and who wouldn't recognize one unless it was labeled.

The railroads have been paying more than half the state taxes for a number of years. It is very true that they do not contribute to county and municipal taxes, and it is just as true that they should not be required to do so.

Any trunk line, like the two principal railroads in the state, touches from half a dozen, to a dozen states, and in every one of them they are called upon for liberal tax support. An interstate railroad is not a local affair, every depot, machine shop, and every other class of property, is a part of a great system that would be incomplete without it.

This is why an ad valorem system of taxation, so much discussed just now, is both unfair and impractical. There is no equitable way to determine the value of interstate railroad property in any individual state.

The terminal station in Chicago with right of way and equipment, for either the Chicago and North-Western, or Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, is worth more than any hundred miles of track and equipment in Wisconsin, or any other state that the roads cross.

There are trains running out of Janesville, that haven't earned enough for years to pay for the fuel consumed. Stock does not represent the value of a railroad, any more than it represents the value of any other corporate property, and if it did, it is not the property of the railroad, but of the individual who holds it, be he a resident of this country or any other. Bonds represent nothing but a first mortgage liability.

There is only one way to determine ad valorem value of railroad property, and that is by an inventory, which would show, after deducting bond and other liabilities, just what the net value was.

No single state can adopt an ad valorem plan of assessment with any degree of fairness and equity. This the manufacturers understand, and it is not a difficult problem to comprehend.

The people of Wisconsin are not burdened with state taxes, and there has been but little complaint until last year when a million dollars of money that was not needed, was collected on account of the one mill tax. The dose will be repeated unless the mill tax is abolished as it should be.

When this is done and the schools furnish a budget, the same as every other department, there will be no occasion for oppressing the railroads with a tax roll that threatens manufacturing interests, as well as the welfare of the state.

That Milwaukee man who hired himself out as driver for a coal company so that he could get enough coal to keep warm with was wiser than his kind usually are.

Dr. Abbott says it is wrong for Midway students to wear paste diamonds. Evidently the only flash that the Dr. likes is 'one which reflects upon the books of the students.

Those Germans who dined off horse flesh in Berlin can now compare notes with the American volunteers of '98 who ate the food for months without knowing it.

Now New England comes out and wants tariff reduced. Why once on a time New England was the only portion of the country that really wanted tariff.

Democracy is once more talking about harmony. This poor old benighted creature must be getting in its dotage to even think such a thing was possible.

While many deer were killed during the past hunting season there is no doubt that there is two deer a piece left for the vigilant game wardens.

How did it happen that the coal trust allowed that bill to be passed through congress calling for an investigation?

Castro has accepted the conditions of the powers. The Monroe Doctrine is saved. Hah! Hah! Hah! Monroe! Tiger!

Attorney General Knox is certainly giving the trusts their money's worth now he has once started.

Rockefeller, Jr. is going to build a church club. Will the can rushers to the corner grocery help pay for it?

Now that the cable is completed between the Hawaiian Islands and America there is no news to send.

Diplomats have a great advantage. They are never discharged they only resign on account of bad health.

Even Punch has at last had to come to American ideas and has hired two cartoonists from New York.

It is reported that there is no suffering on Mt. Aetna owing to the scarcity of coal.

Big Chief Devery is to sue the Tammany wigwag for throwing him out into the cold streets.

PRESS COMMENT

Evening Wisconsin: The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway would be among the heavy losers if Milwaukee were extinguished.

Grant County Herald: Dr. Cornelius Harper of Madison, brother of C. H. Harper of the state superintendent's office, has been granted a plum—is now a member of the state board of health.

Madison Journal: The Milwaukee Free Press is "seeing things" again. We fear the Free Press is incurable. It has waking dreams of the lobby, and sees in the night all manner of respectable legislators opposing Gov. La Follette.

La Crosse Press: The Winona Independent complains because the La Crosse papers publish the news. That charge has never been made against the Winona papers and, if it should be, they would certainly be acquitted.

New York Sun: The New York Sun is becoming aroused over the rapid increase of cereal foods. If these popular breakfast viands go on multiplying in popularity, it thinks an advertisement like the following might be possible as a street-car ornament in a not distant future:
Beef Steak.
The Great Breakfast Food.
More Palatable than Frutterino;
More nourishing than sawdust oats.
Better than vimified rice.
Try it.

Beloit Free Press: If the correspondents can make it so, Madison will be the "storm center" for the next three or four months. They still will have it that there is to be "war to the knife and the knife to the hilt" between the republican brethren of the legislature, when the real indications are that general peace will prevail and the brethren will together in a unity unknown for quite a period. Indeed, there is really nothing ahead to arouse belligerency. It is conceded on the one hand that Senator Spooner will be re-elected by an unanimous vote, and on the other hand that the command of the state convention that a primary election law shall be enacted will be obeyed, so what could there be to excite ire, save and only a spirit of revenge, which of course cannot possibly be lodged in the breasts of gentlemen sufficiently honorable to be called by their fellow citizens to high and exalted positions in the public service.

WOMAN KILLS HER TRADUCER

Mrs. Carson, Teacher at Macon, Ga., Shoots Prof. Rigby.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Ella Carson, teacher of telegraphy in the Georgia-Alabama Business college, shot and instantly killed R. A. Rigby, professor of penmanship, in Lanier's Business college. The shooting occurred in the law office of M. G. Bayne in the Washington block. Mrs. Carson charged that Rigby was circulating a story that she was not of good character. The dead man was found in the middle of the room, lying face downward. Mrs. Carson surrendered to the police, and is now in jail.

Gohier Likes America.

Paris, Jan. 12.—M. Urbain Gohier, the author, is enthusiastic over his visit to the United States, and is about to write a book entitled "The People of the Twentieth Century." He declares that if he were ten years younger he would live in the United States.

Two Men for One Office.

Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 12.—J. H. Bradley and W. F. Rankin claim to be president of the Bradley Buggy Company. At a meeting of stockholders Bradley, who controls the stock, elected himself. Rankin refuses to relinquish the office.

Hermitt Freezes to Death.

Owosso, Mich., Jan. 12.—Charles Derr, aged 75, was found frozen and dead in a hotel where he had been living alone. The body was huddled against the stove as though the old man's last act had been an attempt to kindle a fire.

Die Together.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson, prominent octogenarians of Dawson township, died a few hours apart after a ten days' illness with pneumonia. Mr. Jackson was 80 years old and his wife 81 years.

Chinese for Mexico.

It is reported that China's surplus population is to be sent to Mexico in Chinese vessels. As Chinese are taxed and excluded from Australia and the United States, Mexico offers the only field for emigration of the Celestials. It is proposed to establish a direct line of steamships to Mexico, worked by Chinese.

The Real Trouble.

The "discoverer of the golden amber varnish of the Gremora violins" has been visiting New York newspapers offices again. There are enough good violins. Would that there were fewer bad violinists!

THE BALLAD OF ELECTRIC LIGHT

How very strange it must have seemed in olden times of long ago, When of Electric Light none dreamed;

When winking bells and dapper beau Made merry 'neath the candles glow.

Thinking the tapers wondrous bright, Little of Progress did they know, For progress only means more light.

In later years the lamplight gleamed, The course of progress is but slow, A noble sight 'twas then esteemed To see rich lamps set all a-row.

Sometimes too high sometimes too low They never burned exactly right, They were considered triumphs, though, For progress only means more light.

Then later still the gaslight streamed, As years pass on men wiser grow, A great invention this was deemed, Its brilliant rays so far would throw A radiant light it would bestow;

'Twould turn to day the darkest night But 'tis no longer "come it, faut" For progress only means more light.

Electric force to thee we owe Unmeasured power, unbounded might And thy illuminations show That progress only means more light.

BREAK COMES IN COLD WEATHER

MERCURY CREEPS FROM ZERO TO TWENTY-FIVE ABOVE.

THE EXTREME COLD IS OVER

Ice Harvest Has Begun, and Cars of Coal Are Reported as Coming.

True to the predictions of the weather man the temperature has moderated. The mercury has been steadily climbing up from the zero mark to the comfortable mark of twenty-five above and as compared to yesterday's biting cold the weather is balmy and springlike. The wind that was the severest trial for those who were forced to face it, has subsided and now only blows in gusts.

Way Below
The weather of Sunday and Monday was intensely cold. Even the oldest inhabitant could remember but one period, twenty years ago, when the weather had been as cold for as long a period. "Just after the Newhall fire in Milwaukee," said one old resident, "the thermometer went way down. Twenty three below I think it was and oh so cold."

Hinders Work
The cold weather has put a stop to all outside work except cutting ice. This goes merrily on and the colder it is the better the ice men like it. Indications point now to a let-up of the weather and from now on weather prophets say that while it will be sharp we are through with extreme cold for a week or two at least.

Coal Is Coming
While just at present there is a scarcity of hard coal in Janesville, as everywhere, several car loads are expected soon. One dealer said that the Chicago investigation has done much to accelerate the movement of the coal and that the operators will now hustle out their orders as fast as trains can carry them regardless of price.

STATUTE CLUB MAKES STATEMENT

As a Club It Is Not Investigating City
Affairs—Non-Political in Nature.

In an article which appeared last Friday evening in the Gazette the idea was conveyed that the Lawyers' Statute Club had taken upon itself the work of the examination of the city records, and of pushing the work of reformation of our city government as mapped out by the Municipal League.

Its Statement
The Statute club wishes to state that while individually it is heartily in favor of a good city government, and of any reforms which may be necessary therein, and that a majority of the members are also members of the Municipal League, yet as a club it is not engaged in the work mentioned in the article and has never delegated any one to prosecute such an undertaking in its behalf.

Purpose of Club
The club wishes to state further that it is composed of the younger members of the Rock County Bar and is not a political organization in any sense of the word, but was organized for the sole purpose of mutual benefit from an educational and professional point of view.

Work of Club
The club has made arrangements to have copies of all bills prepared at the coming session of the legislature sent to it as soon as possible after presentation, when each bill will be referred to the proper committee of the club and reported on at the next regular meeting for discussion the object being to thoroughly familiarize ourselves with the statutes of our own state. We make this statement simply that the public may not be misled as to the purposes of the organization. Committee.

MISTAKE MADE

Janesville Coal Company Has Hard
Coal and Has Not Raised Price
Owing to a mistake over the telephone it was announced last night that the Janesville coal company had not any hard coal on hand and hence could not name a price on any basis was an error. What the Janesville Coal company did say was that they had no nut coal in stock but they have other hard coal and have more coming this way as fast as the trains can bring it. Besides this they have not raised their prices.

WANT CHANGES IN FRANCHISE

MERCHANTS BEMOAN LACK OF INTERURBAN FREIGHT SERVICE.

PETITION BEING CIRCULATED

Great Disadvantage in the Present
System Is Alleged—Freight
Is Carried in Illinois.

Travellers on the interurban are beginning to realize that with all of its advantages the Rockford, Beloit and Janesville interurban road is woefully deficient in one respect. And it is not the fault of the road. Those who are doing business with the company between Rockford and the Wisconsin state line have no fault to find. Between the Beloit City limits and the Janesville end of the loop, conditions are different.

No Baggage Carried
If a traveling man wants to make a quick run down to the Linc City the road offers him unequalled advantages. If he has a couple of heavy sample trunks to carry he will have to express them over the Milwaukee or Northwestern road. Even his sample cases must be carried in his hands.

Curtails Shopping Privileges
Or a farmer may come in from some place midway between this city and Beloit and order a suit of clothes. If he can take them along with him all well and good. But suppose that some alterations are necessary. Can he have them sent out to him? Not at all. The franchise granted the road expressly states that not a pound of freight shall be carried. It means that the farmer must go without his purchases or else make a double trip to the city.

Baggage Cars Now Running
And yet the baggage cars in which freight is carried in Illinois, are making their regular trips to this city every day. No one objects to them so long as they are occupied only by passengers.

Petition Going Rounds
With the hope of doing away with these conditions, and allowing farmers to trade freely in this city, a petition is quickly being circulated in this city. It asks the council to amend the franchise so as to allow freight to be carried. The merchants seem to be receiving it with a great deal of favor.

INSTALL OFFICERS IN JOINT SESSION
Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors Plan for an Evening of Pure Pleasure.

No. 366 Modern Woodmen of America and of Crystal Camp No. 132 Royal Neighbors of America and their families will enjoy an evening of sociability at West Side Odd Fellows hall, Wednesday evening. The purpose of the meeting is the joint installation of the recently elected and appointed officers of the two camps.

After the officers have been duly installed the balance of the evening will be devoted to dancing and feasting. There will be good music for the dance and the banquet will be served in the dining hall.

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR ODD FELLOWS
Members of Local Lodges Accept the Invitation Extended by Christ Church.

On next Sunday evening Janesville City Lodge No. 90 and Wisconsin Lodge No. 14 I. O. O. F. will attend divine service at Christ church. The invitation to the Odd Fellows was extended by the church through its rector, Rev. A. H. Harrington, and has been accepted by both lodges.

Members of the two lodges will meet at East Side Odd Fellows hall and proceed to the church in a body. The evening service will include a special sermon of the Odd Fellows, preached by Rev. Harrington.

TO BE TAUGHT USE OF FOILS

E. C. BAILEY WILL INSTRUCT A
CLASS IN FENCING.

ASSOCIATION PHYSICAL WORK

Classes To Be Free To All Members
Who Have the Needed
Apparatus.

One week from tonight a fencing class will begin a series of lessons under the tutelage of Edward Bailey in connection with the physical department of the Young Men's Christian association. Mr. Bailey has not been actively engaged in fencing for some time past, but there is so evident a need of an instructor in that branch that he has at last consented to undertake the work.

Free Instruction
No extra charges will be made for those members of the association who take up the course, and Mr. Bailey will receive no compensation for the time which he will spend. He feels that the object is eminently worthy, and that it will be an excellent opportunity for him to manifest his interest in the association activities.

A Small Class.
About six or eight are expected to take up the course in fencing. A number have been spending their spare moments in the use of the foils, but there has been no system in the work. It has been very evident that far greater returns would result from the time invested if the practice was directed along more definite lines.

To Meet Weekly
Each Tuesday evening the class will meet for an hour's practice. Each member of the class will be required to furnish his own foils, masks, gloves and whatever other paraphernalia they may see fit to use.

Until further notice the 11:30 a. m. train via the C. M. & St. P. R. R. will not make any connections for Freeport and stations between Beloit and Freeport; and the 5:10 p. m. train will not make any connections for Elkhorn, Delavan, Racine and intermediate points.

Our Vinol is the Remedy for all Pulmonary Affections.

Vinol is a preparation that is delicious to take.

It consists of a delicate table wine in which has been dissolved the active curative principles that are found in the liver of the live cod, and to which cod-liver oil owes its reputation as a remedy for coughs, colds and all wasting diseases.

If there is any one who has a cough, a tendency to take cold easily, or a dread of consumption, we would like to have them call and permit us to explain what we know about Vinol and why we believe it will cure all such troubles more surely and quickly than any other remedy ever given to the public.

Following is a letter which has just come to hand and which shows how beneficially Vinol acted in one instance:

"I had a severe cough of long standing. I was advised by friends to give your Vinol a trial, which I did. Before taking it I had tried many other remedies for coughs without obtaining any relief. With Vinol it was different. I have now used four bottles of it, and am pleased to say my cough has almost entirely left me. I have been decidedly benefited by its use in every way. Very truly yours.—H. E. SMALL, Boston, Mass.

Vinol acts beneficially upon the digestive organs, enabling them to obtain for themselves the elements from which are made firm healthy flesh tissue, sound muscle, strong bone structure and pure blood.

We recommend Vinol unreservedly.

If you will call on us at our store, we will tell you why we have such faith in this new wine of cod-liver oil.

We guarantee that if you suffer from any symptoms that indicate troubles for which we know Vinol is intended, we will refund to you your money if you don't find Vinol helps you.

PASSENGER DEPOT NEARLY COMPLETE

Electric Light Fixtures Are Being Put In—New Station is a Com-modious One.

The electric light fixtures for the new St. Paul station are being installed today and will be in working order for the occupancy of the new station on Sunday, when the officials of the company in this city will change their quarters and the old station will be a thing of the past as far as passenger service is concerned.

The new station, while not as large as the Northwestern is a model one and will be a credit to the company and the city. It is located between Jackson and Academy streets, taking up a portion of High street, the train sheds extending over the street. The station is of red brick with cut stone trimmings and a slate roof. The car sheds extend the entire length of the station and afford ample protection for the passengers.

Express and Baggage Rooms
The main portion of the station is west of High street. East of High street are the express and baggage rooms, fitted up with all of the conveniences necessary for the transaction of the express and baggage business. A large set of scales have been installed in the baggage room which will be a great help to the baggage men in getting the weight of excess baggage.

Kitchen and Lunch Room
West of High street comes the main station. At the east end is a commodious lunch room and kitchen. The lunch room is fitted with a hard wood counter and revolving seats for the convenience of the customers. Off from the lunch room is a finely finished kitchen with a gas range, cupboard and ice box so that the person in charge of the counter can furnish a lunch or a meal in short order.

Waiting Rooms
Next comes the smoking or men's waiting room which is a large room and will be fitted up with seats to accommodate the passengers. Beyond this comes the ladies waiting room which is connected with the smoking room by a hall way, the space between the two rooms being utilized for a ticket and telegraph office, which occupies the front of the building, the rear being used for toilet rooms and lavatories.

Finished in Oak
The interior finish of the building is of quarter sawed oak, the walls being tinted a dark green which with the yellow wood gives a very pleasing effect. The windows all have oval tops and fancy glass and add much to the interior effect of the building, which taken all together is a credit to the St. Paul company.

Three Tracks
There will be three tracks in front of the station, which will be on a level with their platforms. The space between all the tracks has been plankled and the passengers will not have to scramble over any tracks in order to get their trains. Two of the tracks are close to the station and only the ordinary width apart but the outside track is separated from the other two by a broad brick platform giving plenty of room for the passengers and baggage between the trains.

Place For Carriages
The busses and hacks will stand at the west end of the station toward Academy street the stands having been already assigned to them. Taken as a whole the station will be as commodious and handy as any station of its size in the state and a great convenience to the travelling public.

CANON SCARES HORSES

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 13.—Secretary of the Navy William H. Moody was seriously but not dangerously injured at the Naval Academy while jumping from a carriage drawn by runaway horses headed for the river. He struck heavily on his face and shoulders, and was unconscious when picked up. He is suffering from shock, and may be compelled to remain at the Naval Academy several days before returning to Washington.

Accompanied by Senator Hale chairman of the senate naval affairs committee, the secretary arrived here to inspect the new buildings being erected in the Naval Academy grounds, being driven from the railroad station in Supt. Brownson's private carriage.

Salute Frightens Horses.

The battalion of cadets was drawn up in line of salute just inside the academy grounds, and as the carriage bearing the secretary, Senator Hale and their escort, Lieut. Poyer, passed in review, a salute of seventeen guns was fired from the guns on the Santee wharf. The restive horses attached to the carriage swerved suddenly. One of them jumped to one side, slipped and in falling broke the pole. In an instant the horses were up and off, beyond control. The team was headed directly for the river, and, fearing the danger of drowning, Secretary Moody leaped from the carriage and fell heavily upon his face. The driver at that moment managed to throw the horses toward the officers' quarters and a moment later stopped them against a wall.

Cadets Render Aid.

The battalion of midshipmen, who had broken ranks without orders as the carriage dashed by, carried the secretary to the nearby residence of Supt. Brownson, where he shortly received medical attention.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13.—The annual meeting of the state board of agriculture was held yesterday. The retiring board wound up its business and prepared to turn over the matters of department to the new board, which meets to-day to organize.

Retiring President Martin Conrad in his annual address dealt at length with proposed improvements upon the state fair grounds. He recommended the enlargement of the Coliseum, a larger women's building to replace the structure destroyed by fire eighteen months ago and the covering of all of the walks connecting the buildings.

The board suspended the J. G. Truman pioneer stock farm at Bushnell for two years on account of alleged insulting language used toward Supt. Ira McCord of the draft horse department and Judge Wright. The trouble grew out of Wright's award to Southgate Marmion, owned by Burgess Bros. of Wenona, over Truman's. A. G. M. President Conrad was presented with a gold watch made specially for him. The presentation speech was made by George Madden of Mendota.
